Dinner at the Lodge

Once back at the lodge, you can freshen up before enjoying a traditional South African braai (barbeque) dinner prepared for you. Listen out for the sounds of hyena and other nocturnal animals as you fall asleep.

DAY 2: KRUGER NATIONAL PARK

The Day Begins

After a good nights sleep, dawn signals an early departure for Kruger National Park, an easy one-hour drive from the lodge.

Into the Wild

Enter through the Orpen Gate and into Kruger National Park. Your first game drive takes you across open savannahs dotted with acacia and marula trees, where herds of elephants and buffalo roam alongside a variety of wildlife.

Coffee with a View

After your first exciting hours in the park, stop at a scenic viewpoint to enjoy a well-deserved leg stretch and coffee break, surrounded by the sounds of the bush.

Lunch Time

Continuing deeper into the park, you will stop at one of Kruger's rest camps for a tasty lunch at your own expense, with time to browse the shop and pick up souvenirs.

Sunset Safari

As the day starts to cool, spend the last hours on the lookout for leopards, hyenas and creatures stirring at dusk, exiting the park as the gates close. Once back, you can enjoy a traditional braai dinner under the stars.
